by next July at Fifth avenue and 106th street.

Yesterday's record contribution was received from Mrs. William H. Yawkey of 12 East Eighty-seventh street, who gave $60,000 to the building fund. Mrs. Yawkey is the widow of a mine owner and iumber dealer who at one time was owner of the Detroit American League baseball club. Mr. Yawkey died about eight months ago, and his widow gave the money to endow two rooms, one in his name and one in her own.

The youngest contributor was Samuel Milbank, the ten-year-old son of Mr. Albert G. Milbank of 123 East Thirty-seventh street, who gave the building

Albert G. Milbank of 123 East Thirty-seventh street, who gave the building fund $50, all his savings with the exception of a savings bank nest egg of thirty-three cents.

Dr. R. A. Benson of the Children's Dairy Association and the Milbank family physician, is head of one of the teams which is raising a $2,000,000 building fund to complete the new hospital. The Alibank boy heard the physician discussing the drive with his parents. Yesterday he obtained permission from his mother to donate his entire savings. He presented the sum to Dr. Benson.

"My bank roll is all gone," he said,
"but I don't care, for I want to give something to the children's floor in the new hospital."
